Additional feedback and comments provided by attendees:

- Respectful, pushed performers to make creative choices, willing to be vulnerable, managed tender subjects in the most ideal manner--I learned just as much about how to help my students work through situations and mental blocks as I did assessing and working through physical issues. I loved the masterclass aspect and I loved even more so the connections and support we experienced in this space.
- Incredible. The people in that room were changed just by being there.

Additional feedback and comments provided by attendees:

- Very healing experience
- It was really liberating to be able to open up to my feelings and to listen and relate to the experiences of others. It's nice to know that there's ways to deal with these feelings and how to get through them.
